*Lighting of the Chalice

We kindle this flame to light our way
in our search for truth and meaning.
We light this chalice to symbolize
the warmth of community.
We kindle this flame as a glimmer of hope for all who suffer or are oppressed.
We light this chalice as a beacon of peace
for all the earth's peoples.

Trevor Stephenson is the artistic director of the Madison Bach Musicians (madisonbachmusicians.org). He tours throughout the US—as harpsichordist, fortepianist, pianist, and lecturer—and has released 16 recordings on the Light & Shadow label. His fortepiano was made in 2003 by Norman Sheppard of Madison and is modeled on a c. 1780 five-octave instrument by J.A. Stein.

* Please rise in body or spirit.

Unitarian Universalist Principles

We, the member congregations of the Unitarian Universalist Association, covenant to affirm and promote:

- The inherent worth and dignity of every person;
- Justice, equity, and compassion in human relations;
- Acceptance of one another and encouragement to spiritual growth in our congregations;
- A free and responsible search for truth and meaning;
- The rights of conscience and the use of the democratic process within our congregations and in society at large;
- The goal of world community with peace, liberty and justice for all;
- Respect for the interdependent web of all existence of which we are a part.

Our Continuing Bond of Union

We, whose names are hereunto subscribed, desiring a religious organization in the spirit of Jesus of Nazareth, which shall make integrity of life its first aim, and leave thought free, associate ourselves together as the First Unitarian Society of Madison and accept to its membership those of whatever theological opinion, who wish to unite with us in the promotion of truth, righteousness, reverence and charity among all.
Formulated in 1879, adapted and reaffirmed in 1980.

“Community means strength that joins our strength to do
the work that needs to be done.
Arms to hold us when we falter.
A circle of healing.
A circle of friends.
Someplace where we can be free.”
