Schmücke dich, o liebe Seele Johannes Brahms

Welcome

Moment of Centering Silence

Opening Words

by Kimberlee Anne Tomczak Carlson

*Chalice Lighting

May the flame we now kindle
light the path
back to our center,
back to that place of belonging again
to our deepest
self.
And may our
chalice
remind us that we are held
and welcomed
whole,
without the need
to hide
a single piece
or part of who we are.

- The goal of world community with peace, liberty and justice for all;
- Respect for the interdependent web of all existence of which we are a part.

Our Continuing Bond of Union

We, whose names are hereunto subscribed, desiring a religious organization in the spirit of Jesus of Nazareth, which shall make integrity of life its first aim, and leave thought free, associate ourselves together as the First Unitarian Society of Madison and accept to its membership those of whatever theological opinion, who wish to unite with us in the promotion of truth, righteousness, reverence and charity among all.
