Unitarian Universalist Sources

The living tradition we share draws from many Sources:

- Direct experience of that transcending mystery and wonder, affirmed in all cultures, which moves us to a renewal of the spirit and an openness to the forces which create and uphold life.
- Words and deeds of prophetic women and men which challenge us to confront powers and structures of evil with justice, compassion, and the transforming power of love.
- Wisdom from the world's religions which inspires us in our ethical and spiritual life.
- Jewish and Christian teachings which call us to respond to God's love by loving our neighbors as ourselves.
- Humanist teachings which counsel us to heed the guidance of reason and the results of science, and warn us against idolatries of the mind and spirit.
- Spiritual teachings of earth-centered traditions which celebrate the sacred circle of life and instruct us to live in harmony with the rhythms of nature.

About First Unitarian Society

We are a large community welcoming "all those of whatever theological opinion who wish to unite with us in the promotion of truth, righteousness, reverence, and charity among all" since 1879.

Our Unitarian Universalist tradition encourages "a free and responsible search for truth and meaning" and the pursuit of justice in our world. We agree there is no single, superior path but instead many possibilities. We welcome and celebrate the diversity found us.

If you are looking for a community of kindred spirits on your spiritual and ethical journey, First Unitarian Society of Madison welcomes you.
